

- Silver Creek Falls -

as experienced by David and Jeff

As the weather has started to get nicer and our residents are getting back in touch with nature. Over at Sander House, David and Jeff decided they wanted to enjoy a new spring day at one of Oregon's most beautiful vistas and the largest state park in Oregon, we decided to take a hike at Silver Creek Falls state park.

We started out with a picnic to keep our strength up, then hiked from the lower parking all the way to the South Falls, and then back!

This was an amazing outing, and we are eagerly planning our next hike at the Falls!
